District Election Notice

New three-year terms are approaching for District Board Members to be elected to represent the Seattle Unit, the Vancouver B.C. Unit, the eastern Washington Units at large, and the western Washington Units at large on the District Board for the 2024-2026 term.

Any ACBL member who is a member of the Seattle or the Vancouver B.C. Units that is interested in being named to that term for their unit should contact their unit president as these two units directly elect their representatives. Any member of an eastern or a western Washington Unit may declare themselves a candidate for their respective area. If more than one candidate for either of these positions files, the District will run an election this late summer or fall.

Ann Romeo is the current Seattle member, and Nick Stock is the current Vancouver member. Marilyn Olson is the current eastern Washington member and Marla Patterson is the current western Washington member.

The deadline for declaring eastern or western Washington candidacies is 15 July 2023. Declarations should be made to the District Elections Chair by letter or email. Declarations should be accompanied by a brief platform/resume statement which will be used if an election is necessary. If an election is necessary unit board members of the respective areas will be the electors.
